by Jeannie Baker

Questions to ask students while viewing the book:

1. What can you see? Where do you think this is? Do you think they were the first people here?

2. How is this different? What has changed? Is this the same window? How do we know that?

3. When is the story taking place (past, present, future).

4. What is now in the picture that was not there before?

5. Why do you think it is important to notice the cracking paint?

6. Why do you think this community is growing? What is the need for this?

7. What do you think is going to happen next? Why can you make this assumption?
